Dear Faculty, Residents, Fellows, Friends, and Alumni,

We are delighted to welcome Dr. Jeffrey S. Klein, as the 14th Annual Edward Smith Lecturer.

Dr. Klein is the A. Bradley Soule and John P. Tampas Green and Gold Professor of Radiology at the University of Vermont College of Medicine. A renowned expert in lung cancer staging and detection, Dr. Klein served as editor of RadioGraphics 2012-2021. Editor-in-chief of the Journal of Thoracic Imaging from 2000 to 2005, Dr. Klein has longtime devotion to educational and scientific publishing in radiology, with a particular interest in developing new presentation formats for educational material. Dr. Klein began his academic radiology career in 1988 as a clinical instructor of radiology and assistant professor in residence at the UCSF School of Medicine. In 1990, he became an assistant professor in residence at the San Francisco General Hospital. From 1993 to 1995, Dr. Klein was a clinical associate professor, chief of thoracic imaging and associate director of the residency training program in the Department of Radiology at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix. He then joined the University of Vermont College of Medicine, where he served as vice chair of the Department of Radiology from 1998 to 2000 and chief of thoracic imaging from 2000 to 2010. Dr. Klein was named to the endowed professorship in 2006. From 2005 to 2010, he served as Associate Dean for Continuing Medical Education at the University of Vermont College of Medicine. Dr. Klein is a member of the RSNA Publications Council, RSNA Public Information Committee, RSNA Quality Improvement Committee, RSNA/ACR Image Wisely Committee, RSNA Residents and Fellows Committee, RSNA Professionalism Committee and RSNA Committee on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. He recently concluded service on the RSNA COVID-19 Task Force.

Best,
Max

The Edward H. Smith, M.D. Annual Lectureship in Radiology at the University of Massachusetts Medical School has been established to honor Dr. Smith's service over two decades as Chair of the Department. Dr. Smith's vision for developing Radiology at UMass and his ability to attract and retain talented faculty created the foundations for the thriving Department we see today. In recognition of his leadership and dedication, this Lectureship will invite leaders of our specialty to share their clinical experience and scientific achievements. We cordially invite you to join us.
