

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion in Surgery Summer Internship

Application

Eligibility:

- College students who will have completed sophomore, junior, or senior year by start of summer internship OR post-grad students interested in applying to medical school but have not yet been accepted to medical school
- Self-identifies as underrepresented in medicine, including by not limited to ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, economic disadvantage, first generation college
- Must attend all 4 weeks, Monday-Friday
- Must adhere to all hospital health and vaccination policies
- Must be a US citizen or permanent resident

Application:

1. Name: _____
2. College: _____ Year in college: _____
3. When are you planning on applying to medical school: _____
4. Which dates do you prefer: June, July, or no preference (circle one)
5. How do you self-identify as an underrepresented minority?
 - Economically disadvantaged
 - First generation college
 - Ethnicity (what is your ethnicity?) _____
 - LGBTQ+
 - Gender (what is your gender?) _____
 - Other _____
6. Please describe your interest in this internship, what your goals are, and how this internship can help you achieve your goals. (Word limit: 500)
7. Please provide a copy of your resume.
8. Please provide 1 letter of recommendation, supporting your dedication to pursuing a career in medicine.

Return to:

Dr. Emily Fan @ Emily.fan@umassmemorial.org with subject line "Last name DEI Summer Internship Application"

-Letters of recommendation can be emailed separately if necessary with same subject line

Deadline to apply: March 14, 2025

Notification: End of March

Student confirmation of acceptance: 1 week from date of notification